JOCK TAMSON'S BAIRNS

CELEBRATION OF BURNS NIGHT AT KOHALA.

Many Merry Men Do Honor at a Feast to the Memory of the Bard of Scotland.

I have read with much pleasure the report of the anniversary of Robert Burns in Honolulu, and I am pleased to see that the Thistle Club has lost none of its vim, but is gathering and branching out, slow but sure. I see that our worthy countryman, Robert Catton, was the orator of the evening and did justice to the memory of Scotland's bard, as no one could have done better, and whether Scotch or no, the oration cannot be read without admitting that he was the right man in the right place. I also see where he refers to the Hilo celebration, which was carried out to the credit of all concerned.

And now I thought that it was nothing but right that Kohala should be heard from in the same line, as there are a few Scotch at a great many admirers of Burns in this district. A committee of the Scotch was formed, consisting of Thomas S. Kay, manager of Halawa plantation; J. H. Mackenzie of Puakea ranch; G. P. Tulloch, manager of Kohala Telephone; W. P. McDougall, district magistrate; Robert Wallace, manager for Kingsley; Adam Lindsey, manager for T. H. Davies & Co., and your humble servant, Robert Laing. The invitations were issued by the committee through G. P. Tulloch, commencing at Mahukona and ending at Niihii, taking in everyone in the district.
The celebration was in the form of a supper without charge to the invited guests. Thomas S. Kay was selected to preside on the occasion, and the event was fixed for Saturday evening, January 23, instead of the proper anniversary date, Monday the 25th. This threw it upon the birthday of one of the promoters, Judge McDougall, and another reason for the change was that, as the mills are running for all they are worth, there would be no damage from oversleeping next morning through an extra donal.

The weather was bad, high winds and heavy roads, so that few came from the outside parts of the district. Nevertheless, despite the weather, there gathered quite a few to pay homage to the world's poet and Scotland's idol. Among those present were J. H. Mackenzie, John Hind, manager Hawi plantation; Howard Bryant, manager Beecroft plantation; W. S. May of Hawi, Palmer Woods of Puhukue ranch, the Messrs. Mist of Honolulu, Adam Lindsey, Senator Frank Northrup, Judge Atkins, Judge McDougall, G. P. Tulloch, Eddie Quinn, George Renton, manager Kohala plantation, H. P.
King, Robert F. Lange of Honolulu, Thomas S. Kay, F. C. Pastow and your correspondent.

Mr. Kay having worked out of the position of chairman, yours truly was impressed into the mastership of ceremonies.

After opening remarks by the chairman, the toast of the evening, "The immortal memory of Scotland's poet, Robert Burns," was given by Mr. Kay, which was drank by all standing and glasses replaced bottom up. Brother Adam Lindsey was called on, as the orator of the evening, to respond, and delivered a very able and well worded address, which proved to all that we had got the right man for that place, and on finishing he received the overwhelming applause he so justly deserved.

G. P. Tulloch gave a well delivered recitation.

Judge Atkins responded to the toast of "Those not Scotch but our guests," for Kohala in particular; Palmer Woods, for Hawi in general; Senator Northrup, for America; R. F. Lange, for Germany; W. S. May, for old England.

After which they returned the toast, "Our Scotch friends," to which the chair responded on behalf of the Thistle Club and the Scotch of Kohala.

J. H. Mackenzie read Lord Rosebery's speech at a Burns gathering at Paisley in good style. W.
S. May sang "Highland Mary," and all who have ever had the pleasure of listening to his sweet voice will know how it was received.

R. Laing recited "Burns in the United States," and then came a series of songs, with Mr. Pastow at the piano in the Kohala hall adjoining the club. And again Bro. Kay came to the front in genuine Scotch style.

Then came the supper prepared by the club steward, Jim Saki, with the grace by Judge McDougall—"Holy Willie's Prayer." The supper was found to be all that could be wished, only the haggis being wanted to complete it. The remainder of the evening was spent in merriment and fun, Geo. Renton getting off some neat jokes. He appeared to be the humorist of the evening until his bookkeeper, Mr. King, got warmed up. Then the boss was in the shade and it was remarked that King had missed his calling.

Time finally made the company realize that it was in the "wee sma' hours ayont the twal," and it dispersed after singing, "God Save Our Gracious Queen," "The Star Spangled Banner," and Auld Lang Syne." R. L.

PROFIT SHARING.

Three Parties Who Would be Benefited by the System.

The following is from Mr. P. C.
Jones' paper on profit sharing, read before the Social Science Club:

In a paper by Mr. Crawley, lately read at a society in this city a few weeks ago, on profit sharing, he claims that there are three parties interested: The Laborer, The Capitalist, and, The State.

I. The laborer, because:
1. It would give him greater returns for his labor.

2. His position would be more permanent.

3. He would become a home builder.

4. His feeling of responsibility would be increased.

II. The capitalist, because:

1. His employees would work better.

2. He would keep more competent and experienced laborers.

3. His losses would be borne partly by his laborers, and business failures would not be so great a menace.

III. The state, because:

1. Strikes would be less frequent and business and society more stable.

2. One great body of people—the laboring class—would become men of responsibility and better citizens.

Saw Plenty of Smoke.

George Martin returned on the Kinau yesterday, after taking a trip to the Volcano and back on his wheel. He expected to break the record between Hilo and the Volcano House but found that the road was being repaired in numerous places, so gave up the idea and took things easy. He says it was so cold at the Volcano house that he had to have three pairs of blankets to sleep under.
He went down to the Volcano but there was no fire to be seen in the pit. Nothing but great volumes of smoke constantly ascending was visible. George is quite sunburned and his complexion now matches his hair nicely.

The Emmeluth Building.

Tom Walker has the contract to put up the stone foundations and brick walls of the new Emmeluth building on King street, and is rushing the work. The owner furnishes all materials and Tom does the rest.

IN THE HIGHER COURTS

CASES APPEALED, DECISIONS AND DOCUMENTS FILED.

The License Case to Go to the Supreme Court—The Ashworth Liquor Case—Other Court News.

Owing to pressure of other news matters on the BULLETIN's columns yesterday the following budget of court news was unavoidably held over:

In the matter of the application of Tai Kee for a writ of manda-mus to compel the Minister of the Interior to grant a lodging house license, notice of appeal from the decision of Judge Perry has been filed by A. S. Humphreys, attorney for petitioner.

In the case of J. S. Ellis et al.
vs. N. R. Rice et al., a stipulation to waive a jury has been filed.
Kinney & Ballou for plaintiffs; W. R. Castle for defendants.

In the case of Bishop & Co.
vs. Cecil Brown, administrator, and others, the consent of W. G.
Irwin, present assignee of all rights under the decree of foreclosure herein, that the sum of $1500 retained by the clerk of the Court pending the perfecting of the title of said W. G. Irwin to the homestead premises of the late Walter M. Gibson in Honolulu, be paid over forthwith to those entitled to the same under the decree.

In the partition suit of Young Hee vs. John Baker and others a stipulation has been filed that the case may be set for hearing on Feb. 10 at 10 a. m.

In the case of J. A. Hopper vs.
H. Cannon et al. it is stipulated and agreed that the sum of $2500, now deposited with the Clerk of the Court in said cause may be withdrawn by Cecil Brown, attorney for assignee, J. F. Colburn; Magoon & Edings, attorneys for H. Cannon; Thurston & Stanley, attorneys for J. A. Hopper.

In the Estate of Anna M. Armstrong, A. Z. Hadley, administratrix, has filed an inventory showing that the estate which has come into her hands consists of 4 shares Hawaiian Sugar Co.'s stock, 1 share Hawaiian Agricultural Co. and $254.10 on deposit in the Hawaiian Postal Savings bank.

In the bankruptcy matter of Mrs. Maria G. Levinho of Lihue, Kauai, Sheriff F. W. Carter has filed a return of service and summons and petition with the statement that he can find no property belonging to the alleged bankrupt.

The will of the late Christian Gertz has been deposited with the Court by Bishop & Co. and opened by Henry Smith, clerk of the Judiciary, and filed in the Clerk's Office, for the purpose of letting the heirs read the same, and if they see fit to have the same pro-bated. So far as known there is no property of the deceased within the jurisdiction of the court, unless there may be property elsewhere which is unknown. The will was executed October 23, 1890, in presence of J. H. Paty and J.
H. Fisher, and has been on deposit in the bank.

In the damage suit of H. Leonard vs. Dr. D. McLennan, on trial on Monday before Judge Perry and a foreign jury, a verdict was rendered for defendant, three of the jurors dissenting. Kinney & Ballou for plaintiff; Neumann and Stanley for defendant.

TODAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Deputy Sheriff Lyman of Hilo has returned service of summons on the two rival presidents of the Hilo Portuguese Sugar Mill Co.
Ltd., in the bill to foreclose mortgage brought by H. Hackfeld & Co. against that corporation.
The indebtedness is about $27,000, including one promissory note for $7000 not yet due.

Jury has been waived in four suits in which the Oahu Lumber and Building Co. is concerned, defendant in one and plaintiff in three.

Exceptions are noted by libelee in Dimond vs. Dimond to a ruling of Judge Carter sustaining libellant's exceptions to two paragraphs in her bill of particulars.
J. Ashworth was tried by the following jury, before Judge Carter, for selling liquor without a license: J. M. Sims, A. E. Weirick, P. J. Voeller, Wm. Mutch, C. D.
Chase, M. Smith, Chas. Phillips, D.
W. McNicoll, A. F. Cooke, W. F.
Dillingham, J. W. Lloyd and N. E.
Gedge. Deputy Attorney-General
Dole for the Republic; A. G. M.
Robertson for the defense. The jury retired at 1:55 and returned at 2:15 with a verdict of not guilty, two dissenting. The defendant was discharged forthwith.

Lum Wa was next put on trial for opium in possession, being defended by Geo. A. Davis. The following jury were empaneled:
F. J. Kruger, J. A. Gilman, H. M. von Holt, C. R. Dement, B. F.
Beardmore, Oliver C. Swain, W.
R. Sims, W. Templeton, T. E.
Wall, A. Larnach, G. W. R. King and R. W. Cathcart.

Pacific Cable Before Congress.

The exact status of the proposed submarine telegraph line to Hawaii is so vaguely understood by the general public that a few words of explanation may not be amiss at this time. The Hawaiian government has exhibited the greatest interest in the matter—more than that, all its efforts have been in the direction of securing for the United States a controlling part in the enterprise. Hawaii regards this country as its natural ally and protector. The governing classes there are almost exclusively Americans—men of our own blood and origin. They want, first of all, annexation, and barring that, they seek such close and intimate relations, political and commercial, as will amount practically to an alliance. Their market is here, their tradition, their ideas, their social and government scheme are identical with ours.
Hawaii is the point in the Pacific where all the midocean trade currents are concentrated. Whether in peace or war, whether for mercantile or political mystery, Hawaii is the key to the situation. It is at this moment the center of a silent and peaceful but tremendous struggle for supremacy. In the solution of this gigantic problem the control of a submarine telegraph between the United States and Hawaii would be a factor of incalculable potency.—

ONE ON LEAP YEAR.

This is the latest on leap year: A well known young gentleman declined to call upon a very charming young lady living in Queen Anne town. When pressed for a reason he said: "She is too much like Ranie. Beer. She's bright, sparkling and pure, and so full of life I am afraid she will 'pop.'"

NEW CAMPBELL BUILDING

HAND-ONE ADDITION TO HONO- LULU'S MAIN STREET.

There Will Be Three Large Stores with Elevators, Light Wells and Other Modern Improvements.

All negotiations between Excelsior Lodge of Odd Fellows and James Campbell looking to the purchase of the Odd Fellows Hall property by the latter have been declared off, not from any fault of Mr. Campbell's or any difference about the price, but because the Odd Fellows finally concluded not to sell at any figure.
As soon as this decision was reached Mr. Campbell at once instructed his architects, Messrs.
Howard & Train, to go ahead with the plans for a new building on his own lot. These have been completed and are on view at Cecil Brown's office, where tenders will be received for putting up the building.

According to the architects' plans the building will be of brick, with ornamental stone and iron front. It will front about 96 feet on Fort street and have a uniform depth of 70 feet, and be two stories in height. There will be no basement in the building, but the foundations will go down to the coral.

The building is designed for stores only and there will be three of them, each 30 feet 8 inches wide and 68 feet in depth. The entire front of the first floor will be of iron and glass, affording all the light possible. The front of the second story will be of Hawaiian stone, handsomely trimmed, and surmounted by a heavy stone cornice with semicircular centre extending to considerable height.
The other walls will be of brick.

Each of the three stores will be provided with separate light wells, elevator shafts, stairways, closets and lavatories; the stairways in each instance being in the rear. All the stores will have modern recess doors, every inch of available front space being taken up with plate glass windows.

The building will occupy the entire space between Wichman's jewelry store and the Odd Fellows' building, and its completion will be hurried. No bids have yet been received on the work, but it will cost in the neighborhood of twenty five thousand dollars. The building will set back about eight feet from the line of the old buildings to conform with the Act of the last Legislature authorizing the widening of Fort street, all matters concerning damages having been settled between the government and Mr. Campbell.

The Night Ginger.

D. H. Hitchcock, in a letter to the Hawaii Herald, says:

Our "Hawaiian ginger" is absolutely worthless I believe, as a marketable article. The Chinese ginger, is, however, a very different article and is what is wanted. This grows readily and has to be carefully cultivated and yields a large amount of green root to the acre and, if properly cured, would make a profitable addition to our agricultural products. But there will always be the temptation to adulterate it, with our worthless wild ginger.

As to Cable Landing Rights.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 25.—
The Senate Foreign Relations Committee today favorably reported a bill asserting that the shore end of any new submarine telegraphic cable which shall be protected in any foreign country by exclusive land rights or other special privileges shall not be permitted to land in this country without the consent of Congress.
